EDWARDSVILLE - Efforts made by Edwardsville High School senior class presidents Usma Rizvi and Bryson Maedge, with the assistance of Principal Dennis Cramsey, will create a virtual academic signing for the EHS Class of 2020. The new virtual academic signing will be presented soon online.

Rizvi said she recently graduated from Edwardsville High School and for her and Maedge, it was a project they each have a deep passion about.

“I have been working with my principal Dr. Dennis Cramsey to compile a virtual academic signing,” Rizvi said.

There will be a web area for the presentation once it is completed.

“I am happy we have something to recognize students who worked so hard over the last four years and have since missed out on the signing,” Rizvi said. “We are doing our best with this project so that the entire community can see the senior students’ achievements. We have been collecting photos and the name of the college each student will attend. We are featuring students who have scholarships covering half or more of their tuition as a result of their academic achievements.”

Stay tuned for the presentation.
