EDWARDSVILLE – Town and Country Bank welcomes Ryan Weis to its lending team. Weis has assumed the role of Mortgage Loan Officer with the company's Edwardsville office located at 10 Terra Verde.

“We are happy to have Ryan as part of the Town and Country family. His professional experience in mortgage lending and reputation for developing meaningful relationships with clients further strengthens our growing team in the Metro East market,” said Dana M. Dow, President, Town and Country Banc Mortgage Services.

“My goal is to make sure the process of purchasing a home—or refinancing an existing mortgage—is as seamless as possible. I know how stressful it can be,” said Ryan.

Weis graduated from Illinois State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1998. Growing up on a farm in Highland, Illinois, Weis has spent his entire life in the St. Louis metro area.
