COLLINSVILLE INVITATIONAL

HARTOIN LEADS FOUR TRIAD RUNNERS IN TOP TEN IN WINNING COLLINSVILLE INVITATIONAL: Sydney Hartoin of Triad won the individual championship with a time of 20:47.50 in leading four Knight runners in the top ten, while Granite City placed five in the first ten, but it was the Knights who won the team title at the Collinsville Invitational meet Wednesday afternoon at Collinsville High.

The Knight won the meet with a score of 30 points, edging out the Warriors, who had 32 points, while the host Kahoks came in third at 67 points. Alton and Greenville also entered runners, but didn't have enough for a complete team, thus no score was kept for the Redbirds or Comets.

Hartoin was first, followed by Granite's Claire Sykes, who had a time of 21:42.40, with teammate Lacey Kunz coming in third at 21:49.50. Fourth place went to the Knights' Kailey Peterson, who had a time of 22:10.10, coming in fifth was Collinsville's Maggie Fitzgerald, who had a time of 22:12.40, with Triad having two runners --- Clare Schaft and Chloe Gough --- placing sixth and seventh, with respective times of 22:13.70, and 22:32.20. A trio of Warrior runners --- Lauryn Fenoglio, Emilee Franklin and Shannon Roustio --- rounded out the top ten, with Fenoglio coming in at 22:36.00, Franklin at 22:39.80, and Roustio at 22:55.60.

The Knights' other runners were Mattie Noyes, who came in at 24:22.30, and Amanda Bagwell, who had a time of 24:24.30. In addition to the top five, Granite had Lillian Harris, who had a time of 23:14.60, and Rowan Wallace, who came in at 33:03.50.

Outside of Fitzgerald, Collinsville had Kassidy Rea at 25:37.90, Hannah Petit, who had a time of 26:22.60, Keira Winterich, who came in at 31:33.10, Leslie Rivera, who's time was 32:04.90, and Lorelei Harness, who was timed in 33:20.90. The Alton runners were Alayna Rabozzi, who had a time of 25:05.50, and Eva Schwaab, who came in at 27:42.40.
