

Local 618 Threads Presents CHADS Coalition for Mental Health With Check For $3,500

January 18 2021 9:23 AM

GLEN CARBON - Local 618 Threads presented CHADS Coalition for Mental Health with a check from our #nohate threads this past fall for $3,500. This was our third year for this campaign and to date these threads have raised $6,500. Thank you to everyone who has supported this cause! Special shout out to the schools who participated this year! Father McGivney, Woodland Elementary, Cassens Elementary, Glen Carbon Elementary, Liberty Middle School.

CHADS Coalition continues their mission in helping the community with advanced awareness and prevention of depression, suicide and bullying. This organization has educated many school districts over the years and continues to do so virtually during this time. For more information on their services please visit <https://www.chadscoalition.org/>