EDWARDSVILLE - Edwardsville High School's band, orchestra, and chorus group had 21 earn All-State designation recently.

The students submitted video recordings this year for their All-District ILMEA audition.

"The high school level had great participation but the middle school level of participation was very low this year," Edwardsville High School Orchestra Director

Victoria Voumard said. "The All-State selection was based on the scores from the All-District audition."

Voumard continued: "Hopefully next year we will be able to have in-person auditions and festivals."

The list of those EHS students honored with All-State are as follows:

Emily Amick, Senior, EHS Senior Chorus
