The 2014 fundraising campaign for the Southwest Illinois Division of United Way of Greater St. Louis will officially kick off with its '70s themed event "Giving is Groovy" on Wednesday, August 27 from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Guests will enjoy a selection of local food, drinks, entertainment and a silent auction throughout the evening at Lewis and Clark Community College's N. O. Nelson Campus, 600 Troy Road, Edwardsville, IL 62025. '70s attire is optional. Tickets for the event are $30 per person with proceeds benefitting United Way.

Joann Barton, senior vice president with TheBANK of Edwardsville and United Way's 2014 Southwest Illinois Division campaign chair, will announce this year's campaign goal for the community at the event.

"When it comes to helping people, this community is one that is generous year after year," Barton said. "We are looking forward to another successful campaign to help one in three people throughout the region live their best possible lives through United Way."

The Southwest Illinois Division of United Way serves Calhoun, Greene, Jersey, Macoupin and Madison counties. More than 40 local health and human service organizations that help people in the community are supported by the Southwest Illinois Division's annual fundraising campaign each year.
