The new book offers ideas in categories including food and drink, music and entertainment, sports and recreation, culture and history, shopping and fashion, and great main streets and neighborhoods.

Experience the legacy of famous Missourians, including George Washington Carver, Daniel Boone, Laura Ingalls Wilder, and Harry S. Truman.

Find ideas for exploring the Ozark mountains, Missouri's big cities, unique small towns, and even prehistoric caves. The book's insider tips cover world-famous attractions, distinctive food and nightlife scenes, fashion and the arts, and where to shop for everything from fine furniture to fine whiskey.

St. Louis-based authors John W. Brown and Amanda E. Doyle invite readers to buckle up for this nonstop adventure ride around their home state. Special features such as seasonal and themed itineraries make trip planning a snap, so there will never be a reason to say, "I have nothing to do!"
