

Ashes-To-Go Available At Our Lord's Lutheran Church

February 14 2021 9:00 AM

MARYVILLE – Our Lord's Lutheran Church (OLLC), 150 Wilma Dr., Maryville, will offer a drive-through option for the imposition of ashes on Wednesday, Feb. 17.

Participants will remain in their cars during this drive-through event. Upon arrival, Pastor Darla Ann Kratzer will come to your car window and step forward to hand you a single page with prayers. She will then step back and stand six feet from your car door when speaking. Then, using a long-handled cotton swab, she will impose a cross of ashes upon your forehead.

This Ash Wednesday experience will be available during three convenient timeframes: 7:30-8:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m., and 4:30-6:00 p.m.

To get to OLLC, follow the frontage road past Elmwood Care Center, turn right at the drive just before the church building, and pull up to the covered portico. If another car is already there, please pull in behind it and wait to pull forward when it departs. Please wear a mask and remain in your car.

In addition to Ashes-to-Go, Our Lord's will observe Ash Wednesday with a 7 p.m. online service.

The mood of Ash Wednesday is somber as it starts a six-week examination of our lives. While ashes are a symbol of our mortality, they also serve as a reminder to "come clean" before God and prepare ourselves for growth in faith. Therefore, Christians around the world have the sign of the cross marked on their foreheads in ash on this day. Although in so many ways we humans are dust in the wind, God loves us deeply and invites us into a relationship again and again.
