

Edwardsville Community Foundation Announces Two Additional Rounds Of Grants

February 27 2021 7:00 AM

EDWARDSVILLE - The Edwardsville Community Foundation (ECF) is pleased to announce two additional rounds of grants from ECF's Community COVID-19 Relief Fund, established to provide relief to our local communities.

The most recent grant recipients include, Boy Scouts of America, Main Street Community Center, The Restore Network, St. John's Community Care Center, and Trailhead Church, bringing the total in COVID-19 Relief grants to $140,000.

“Our community has stepped up to support ECF’s COVID-19 relief efforts, so we’re happy to announce the most recent rounds of grants,” said ECF Executive Director, Pamela Farrar. “As the needs have evolved, our grants have also evolved to meet the current needs of local nonprofits.” ECF is still accepting gifts in support of COVID-19 relief.
