NAPERVILLE - Millikin's Mackenzie Dixon, a senior of Edwardsville and Mascoutah High School, and North Central's Daniele Stubner were selected as the College Conference of Illinois & Wisconsin (CCIW) Women's Outdoor Track & Field Athletes of the Week on Tuesday.

Dixon, a senior from Edwardsville and Mascoutah High School, competed in her first race since March of 2020 and won the 800-meter run at the Big Blue Alumni Invitational. She clocked a time of 2:13.50, which is first in the CCIW and second on the NCAA Division III national list.

Stubner, a senior from Minooka, Illinois and Minooka High School, won two field events at North Central's First Chance Meet over the weekend. She won the hammer with a personal best throw of 44.30 meters (145-4) and the javelin with a throw of 35.43 meters (116-3). She also placed third in the shot put with an outdoor personal record of 10.79 meters (35-5). Her mark in the javelin is first in the CCIW, while her hammer throw is fourth.
