

Now Hiring at the Riverboats at the Gateway Arch: Culinary Positions, Deckhands, Cruise Coordinators and More

April 24 2021 7:10 AM

ST. LOUIS – Seasonal and full-time employment opportunities — including culinary and riverboat-specific positions — are now available at the Riverboats at the Gateway Arch, located below the Gateway Arch on the St. Louis Riverfront.

As the 2021 travel and tourism season shifts into high gear, the riverboats are hosting safe, in-person, open hiring events, where applicants can meet with riverboat leadership, apply and interview at the event.

Outgoing and customer-focused individuals interested in a fun work environment on the Mississippi River should attend one of the in-person hiring events Tuesday, April 27 through Saturday, May 1, from 1 to 4 p.m. daily.

Interested applicants should visit gatewayarchjobs.com for a full listing of openings and application details. You must be 16 years or older to apply, unless noted otherwise. Positions include but are not limited to:

- Line cooks
- General kitchen staff
- Servers (must be 18 years or older)
- Cashiers
- Cruise coordinators
- Bartenders (must be 21 years or older)
- Deckhands

$300 HIRING INCENTIVE: New employees are eligible for a $300 hiring incentive. To qualify, new employees must be on time for all shifts and maintain 20 hours per week availability. Eligible employees will receive $100 on first, third, and fifth paychecks (payment dates may vary depending on start date).
