WOOD RIVER - The East Alton-Wood River boys dominated the Prairie State Conference Track and Field Meet with 138 points compared to Father McGivney with 74 points, Metro East Lutheran with 68 points and Bunker Hill with 18 points on Wednesday at Wood River.

Father McGivney's Tyler Guthrie was once again a meet standout, capturing the 800 and 1,600 meters in the conference meet. Pacey Meyer of East Alton-Wood River won both the 100 and 200 meters. MELHS' hurdler Nathan Butler won the 110 meter hurdles with a time of 17.3 and also was third in the 300 meter low hurdles. Butler also anchored 4 x 100 and 4 x 200 relays, which were both second.
