CHESTER - East Alton-Wood River senior Jayden Ulrich broke the Illinois State high school record in the discus throw on Wednesday at the Popeye and Olive Oyl Invitational track meet at Chester High School as the Oilers finished fourth as a team, Ulrich unleashed a throw of 51.25 meters, or 168 feet, one-and-one-half inch, breaking the record of 167 feet, four inches set by Kelsey Card of Carlinville in the Class A state's finals 2010. The throw was also farther than the Class 3A record set by Edwardsville's Emmonnie Henderson of 161 feet, one inch, which was set in 2011.

The national high school record is 191 feet, six inches, set by Shelbi Vaughn of Mansfield, Texas, in 2012.

It's also Ulrich's second state record of the season, having set the record in the shot put on May 14 with a throw of 51 feet, 11 inches, breaking the mark set by Kathleen Young of Warrensburg-Latham in 2016.

The home-standing Hornets won the meet with 148 points, with Sesser-Vallier coming in second with 97 points, Okawville was third with 95 points, the Oilers came in fourth with 61 points, Vienna was fifth with 51 points, New Athens was sixth with 21 points, Father McGivney Catholic was seventh with six points and Waterloo Gibault Catholic was eighth with five points.

"Jayden was Jayden again, throwing farther with a 168-foot, one-and-one-half inch discus throw," said EAWR head coach Russ Colona. "The big numbers keep coming. We have to keep the momentum going for two more weeks."

Ulrich also won the shot put with a toss of 14.04 meters, while Hannah Sechrest won the high jump, clearing the bar at 1.45 meters to take the event. Jessica Brown was second in the 100 meters with a time of 13.66 seconds, while Megan Douglas was third in the 200 meters at 29.67 seconds, and was fifth in the 400 meters at 1:06.83.

Sabrina Fulkerson was sixth in the 800 meters, with a time of 3:15.83, while the 4x100 meter relay team came in second at 55.50 seconds and the 4x200 meter team was third at 2:07.71.

Kaitlyn Hatley scored the Griffins' only points of the meet with a third-place finish in the 400 meters, having a time of 1:04.98.
