SOFTBALL

IHSA PLAYOFFS

BELLEVILLE EAST-EDWARDSVILLE GAME POSTPONED: The IHSA Class 4A sectional softball game between Belleville East and Edwardsville, set for the Edwardsville Sports Complex, was postponed on Tuesday after the strong downpours that came through the area on Tuesday afternoon.

The game has been rescheduled for Wednesday at 4:30 p.m. at Edwardsville, but if Edwardsville's field isn't playable, the game will be moved to East's park.

The winner will play at Minooka, who defeated Pekin 7-6 in their sectional semifinal, on Thursday. The sectional winner advances to the last eight, and will play in the Illinois State University super-sectional on Monday against either Naperville Neuqua Valley or Yorkville. Neuqua Valley defeated Plainfield North 11-1, while Yorkville won over Oswego East 9-4 in the sectionals on Tuesday.

The sectional final and the supersectional games are both set for 4:30 p.m.

CENTRALIA CHRIST OUR ROCK LUTHERAN 1, HARDIN CALHOUN 0:

Christ Our Rock scored the game's only run in the third, and the Silver Stallions made it hold up to eliminate Calhoun in the IHSA Class 1A sectional semifinal in Centralia.

Elly Pohlman and Lucy Kallal both had two hits each for the Warriors, while Charleigh Wilson had the other hit on the day.

Kylie Angel pitched a complete game in the circle for Calhoun, striking out 11.

COR advances to the final, where they'll play at Valmeyer who defeated Pleasant Hill 5-0 in the other semifinal, for the right to go on to the supersectional on Monday at the University of Illinois-Springfield against the winner of Mt. Sterling Brown County and Glasford Illini Bluffs. Brown County defeated Havana 13-6, while Illini Bluffs won over Camp Point Central 9-0.

The Warriors finish their season 14-9.
