

Missouri Conservation Truck Stolen in North County Precinct

June 29 2021 11:47 AM

ST. LOUIS - On June 28, 2021 at approximately 6:35 AM, St. Louis County Police officers from the North County Precinct responded to the 12600 block of Columbia Bottom Road, to a maintenance garage of the Missouri Department of Conservation, for a call for service of a burglary.

Upon arrival, officers located the scene of a burglary where suspect(s) unknown forced entry into the office/garage area of the structure.

The suspect(s) stole a pick-up truck that was located on the property. It is described as a 2018 Ford F-150, dark blue in color, with State of Missouri Conservation triangular graphics on both the driver and passenger doors. The truck displayed a conservation license plate of 120125M. The truck also contained miscellaneous tools. Attached is a photo of the actual vehicle and an exemplar photo with a better angle of it.

The burglary occurred between June 25, 2021 at approximately 4:30 AM and June 28, 2021 at approximately 6:30 AM.

The investigation is being led by the St. Louis County Police Department's Burglary Unit.
