August 10 2021 11:48 AM

ST. LOUIS - As the popularity of curbside pickup continues to grow among grocery customers, Schnuck Markets, Inc. today announced that, in partnership with Instacart, the company will expand the convenience offering to 12 additional locations in Missouri, Illinois, and Indiana this fall. One of the locations is the Schnucks store at 72 Airport Plaza, Bethalto.

This latest expansion will bring the total number of Schnucks stores offering curbside pickup to 82.

“With the goal of providing our customers a seamless shopping experience, curbside pickup is a convenient option for those who are time-strained and always on the go,” said Chace MacMullan, Schnucks Director of Digital Experience. “Schnucks shoppers can balance their busy lifestyles by ordering a full grocery order and then swing by their Schnucks store and have their purchases brought directly to their vehicle.”

As an added bonus to customers, the $1.99 Curbside Pickup fee has been waived at all Curbside locations for orders of $35 or more. (There is a $3.99 fee for orders under $35.)

To find additional stores already offering curbside pickup and to place orders, customers can visit schnucksdelivers.com, select the “Pickup” option, and select a time between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. After completing their purchase, customers will receive a text/app message with store parking and pickup instructions. The grocery order is kept in a designated area of the store, with temperature-sensitive items appropriately placed in refrigerators, freezers and warming units.
