

FedEx Announces Edwardsville Hiring Event On September 23

September 20 2021 3:49 PM

EDWARDSVILLE - FedEx is increasing the power of its nationwide workforce in preparation for another busy holiday season by hosting both in-person and virtual hiring events across the country, including Indianapolis.

Teams are hiring for thousands of positions across all operating companies. Temporary bonus structures and pay enhancements may also be available in select markets.

Positions include package handlers, drivers, and other support positions, and many seasonal hires may become full-time job opportunities as demand for our services grows and our networks expand.
