September 24 2021 9:08 AM

O'FALLON – Keystone Place at Richland Creek announced today that Greg Gelzinnis has joined the independent living, assisted living, and memory care community as its Senior Living Counselor.

In his Senior Living Counselor role, Gelzinnis will provide guidance to seniors and families seeking insight into the variety of available senior housing and care options and help them to determine the right fit. “I have loved seniors all my life and believe that their life stories are better than today’s reality tv,” Gelzinnis said. “I am very honored to be a part of the Keystone Place at Richland Creek family and look forward to serving our residents and prospective residents and their families on their senior living journey.”

Hospitality and Customer Service have long been synonymous with the Gelzinnis name since Greg's grandparents started their grocery store in Alton, IL during the depression. Greg and his mom, Pat, continued the legacy as co-owners of Bluff City Tours – the Trolley Company in the region from 1986-2015. Greg has dedicated his life to the service of others from planning special events to raising money for social services. "It feels very good to have another opportunity to serve in the exciting field of senior living. I really feel like I have come home." Gelzinnis added.
