Calhoun increased its overall record to 6-0 with a 67-52 win over Routt on Monday night.

The game is a warmup for the Carrollton Holiday Tourney for Calhoun. Calhoun faces Griggsville-Perry at 6 p.m. on Friday in the tourney.

Mitch Bick and Gus Baalman each contributed 17 points; Blake Booth added 11 points on Monday night.

Calhoun coach Ryan Graner said he was pleased with Bick and Baalman's performances. Bick sat out much of the first half nursing two fouls and scored the majority of his points in the second half.

"I think we are leaving more on the court than we should in the second half and we get our spurts big enough to take it on home," he said. "We have been battling illness pretty hard. The flu hit us pretty hard. We also have some other things we need to work on heading into Friday."
