

Back By Popular Demand! Max & Louie Productions Proudly Presents “Songs For Nobodies” Starring Debby Lennon

October 13 2021 1:20 PM

ST. LOUIS - Olivier Award-nominated playwright Joanna Murray-Smith, asks the question, “What if an essentially unremarkable human being had an encounter or connection with a huge star that changed the course of their life?” Ten women all played by one extraordinary actress in Songs for Nobodies is running December 2nd through December 12th at the Grandel Theatre in the Grand Center Arts District. Visit maxandlouie.com or call (314) 534-1111 for tickets, now on sale.

This unforgettable one-woman powerhouse performance, starring Debby Lennon, weaves the music of legendary divas Judy Garland, Patsy Cline, Billie Holiday, Edith Piaf, and Maria Callas throughout a mosaic of stories told by the everyday women who had unexpected life-changing encounters with these musical icons.

Featuring such favorites as “Come Rain or Come Shine,” “Crazy,” “Non, Je Ne Regrette Rien,” “Lady Sings the Blues,” and “Vissi d’arte,” Songs for Nobodies illuminates the power of song to share a story, heal heartbreak, and inspire a dream.

“We are delighted to bring this powerful theatrical piece back starring the one and only Debby Lennon, directed by the irrepressible Pamela Hunt. What a team!,” said Stellie Siteman, Producing Artistic Director.
