Regular Season game passes.

Your sponsorship will help fund officials, feed the players after games, championship trophies, tournament media guide, and other associated costs with running a major basketball tournament.

You can help the school, the team, the young athletes, and the community by helping sponsor this Thanksgiving Basketball Classic. Please consider becoming a major “Shell Pride Basketball Sponsor”.

As you are aware, there are enormous costs involved with hosting a large basketball tournament. We are hoping for a generous commitment to helping sponsor this major event. In turn, you will receive extensive advertising and publicity that will expose you and your business or service to connect and communicate with a significant audience, together with contributing resources to the community and the boys’ basketball team.

If you have a camera-ready ad, you may provide this for publishing. You can submit your ad either hard copy or via e-mail, or we can design an ad for your business.

We look forward to working with you as one of our major “Shell Pride Tournament Sponsors”.
