

Grand Jury Indicts St. Louis Father and Son Along With Others in Fentanyl and Cocaine Conspiracy

November 17 2021 1:50 PM

ST. LOUIS – A federal grand jury indicted Gregory Dixon, Jr., Gregory Dixon III, Miguel Angel Gonzalez, Carlos Gonzalez, Quintin D. Adkins and Ruben Sanchez Blanco to knowingly combine, conspire, agree, and confederate together with each other and with other persons known and unknown to distribute and to possess with the intent to distribute cocaine and fentanyl.

The indictment alleges that beginning at a time unknown but including 2015 to on or about the date of this indictment, in the Eastern District of Missouri, and elsewhere, Gregory Dixon, Jr., Gregory Dixon III, Miguel Angel Gonzalez, Carlos Gonzalez and Quintin D. Adkins conspired to distribute five (5) kilograms or more of cocaine.

Additionally, Gregory Dixon, Jr. and Ruben Sanchez Blanco are accused in the conspiracy of distribution of four (400) grams or more of fentanyl.

This effort is part of an Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Forces (OCDETF) operation. OCDETF identifies, disrupts, and dismantles the highest-level criminal organizations that threaten the United States using a prosecutor-led, intelligence-driven, multi-agency approach. Additional information about the OCDETF Program can be found at <https://www.justice.gov/OCDETF>.

Charges set forth in the indictment are merely accusations and do not constitute proof of guilt. Every defendant is presumed to be innocent unless and until proven guilty.

The case was investigated by the Drug Enforcement Administration and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
