

United Way Launches Disaster Recovery Fund To Help St. Louis Area Families Impacted By Weekend's Storms

December 13 2021 3:42 PM

ST. LOUIS — Following Friday evening's tornadoes and severe storms that impacted families across the St. Louis region, United Way of Greater St. Louis has launched the Disaster Recovery Fund. All proceeds raised through the fund will support the long-term recovery efforts for impacted households in the St. Louis region, such as temporary housing and shelter, unmet basic needs, and other emerging needs.

Donations can be made online at HelpingPeople.org/Disaster-Recovery or individuals can make an offline donation by mailing a check to:

United Way Greater St. Louis
Attn: United Way Disaster Recovery Fund
LOCKBOX 503485
St. Louis, MO 63150-3485

Please make checks payable to “United Way of Greater St. Louis” and on the memo line of the check, indicate that the donation is for “United Way Disaster Recovery Fund”.

Anyone impacted by the storms in need of non-emergency help can dial 2-1-1 from a cell or 1-800-427-4626 from a landline phone to get connected to a trained specialist.

Additionally, volunteers are needed to help with response efforts in the Defiance, MO area. Anyone interested in volunteering can learn more at Stlvolunteer.org/disasterhelp.
