Hockey Teams In Both MVCHA, MSCHA Approach Holidays With Various Results, Granite City Among Top Teams In MVCHA, Edwardsville Returns To MSCHA

The Riverbend high school club hockey teams are approaching the Holidays with various degrees of success since the season began in early November. Here's a look of how things have gone thus far in the season.

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY CLUB HOCKEY ASSOCIATION

The Metro-East high school league has been going along since mid-November, with Granite City having the second-best record in the league at 10-1-1, leading the West Division. Triad is second at 6-7-0, Alton currently is in third with a 5-8-0 mark Bethalto is 0-13-2 and East Alton-Wood River is currently 0-11-0.

In the East Division, Columbia leads with a league-best 10-0-4 mark, with Collinsville in fifth at 7-6-0 and Edwardsville East seventh at 1-9-2.

The Warriors only loss was to Freeburg-Waterloo 3-1 on Nov. 15, with their only tie being a 1-1 draw with Columbia on opening night Nov. 1. Lawson Kimble, son of head coach and former St. Louis Blues and NHL player Darin Kimble, leads the team in scoring with 36 goals and 18 assists for 54 points, with Bobby Scott adding 12 goals and 15 assists for 27 points and Ethan Kuehnelt has seven goals and 16 assists for 23 points.

Lawson Bell leads the Redbirds in scoring with two goals and seven assists for nine points, with David Saulle behind with four goals and four assists for eight points and Max Schleeper having four goals and three assists for seven points.

MID-STATES CLUB HOCKEY ASSOCIATION

Edwardsville returned to the MSCHA after a one-year absence due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and have returned to the Municipal Division, where the Tigers have currently 1-9-1 in the division, which contains many of the league's top teams such as CBC, St. Louis U. High, St. John Vianney Catholic, DeSmet Jesuit, Kirkwood, Chaminade College Prep Catholic, Francis Howell, Rockwood Lafayette and Rockwood Marquette.

The team's only win came Dec. 17 over Lafayette 4-2, with the most recent game being a 2-1 loss to Rockwood Marquette Dec. 20. Frederick Bramstedt leads Edwardsville in scoring with six goals and two assists for eight points, while Luke Keth has three goals and two assists for five points and Codi Klenke has two points and two assists for four points.

The Tigers meet defending St. Louis Blues Challenge Cup champions CBC Thursday night at East Alton Ice Arena in an 8:45 p.m. face-off. The Tigers are playing in their final season at East Alton, and will move into their new on-campus Gori Family Ice Arena for the 2022-23 season. It's believed to be the first-ever on campus area in the 50-year history of the MSCHA.
