MSCHA HOCKEY

EDWARDSVILLE DROPS PAIR OF GAMES IN MSCHA MUNICIPAL

DIVISION: The Edwardsville hockey team lost two games in the Municipal Division of the Mid-States Club Hockey Association last week, losing to DeSmet Jesuit 15-0 Jan. 13 at the East Alton Ice Arena, then lost to Kirkwood at the Kirkwood Ice Arena Jan. 15 1-0.

On the game last Thursday night, the Spartans rushed out to an 11-0 lead in the first period, then scored four more goals in the second to end the game early due to the MSCHA 15-goal rule. Nick Salthouse scored four goals for DeSmet, while Tyler Loughman had a first period hat trick, Thomas Ruder and Jacob Bosche both scored twice and Vito Biondo III, Nathan Wirth, Tyson Davenport and August Eisenbeis also scored.

The Spartans outshot the Tigers 50-2, with Paige Hunt making 35 saves.

Edwardsville is now 1-17-1 and concludes the regular season Thursday night in their final game at East Alton Ice Arena against St. Louis University High in an 8:45 p.m. face-off. The Tigers are set to move into their on campus Gori Family Ice Arena next season, the first one of its kind in Mid-States history.
