

Emergency Broadband Benefit Program Changes To The Affordable Connectivity Program

January 28 2022 9:07 AM

STAUNTON - Madison Communications is honored to continue assisting the local communities by participating in the FCC's Affordable Connectivity Program that launched on January 1, 2022.

Madison Communications is a local company that understands the COVID-19 pandemic has increased the need for internet services, while reducing income for many families. Their priority is to provide pathways of affordable internet services to connect eligible households to jobs, virtual classrooms, healthcare services, and much more.

Emergency Broadband Benefit recipients fully enrolled as of Dec. 31, 2021 will automatically receive their current monthly benefit until March 1, 2022. You can learn more on the program transition and steps you may need to take to stay enrolled after March 1st by visiting fcc.gov/broadbandbenefit.

The ACP Program will offer qualified low-income consumers:

- A discount up to $30 per month on broadband internet services and associated equipment rentals
- A one-time discount up to $100 for a laptop, tablet, or desktop computer (with a co-payment of more than $10, but less than $50) by visiting participating program retailers.

Please note that although Madison Communications is participating in the Broadband Discount Program, we will not be participating in the one-time device discount because we are not a retail business that sells these items.
