

World Wide Technology Raceway's Toyota 200 is the first leg of NASCAR Camping World Truck Series' 2022 Triple Truck Challenge

February 1 2022 11:50 AM

ST. LOUIS REGION – World Wide Technology Raceway's Toyota 200 NASCAR Camping World Truck Series event today was announced as the first leg of the three-race NASCAR Triple Truck Challenge. The June 4 Toyota 200, the prelude to WWTR's inaugural NASCAR Cup Series race, will pay an extra $50,000 to the winner if he is a Truck Series regular. If one driver sweeps the series and wins all three, he will earn $500,000.

The second and third races of the Triple Truck Challenge are Nashville Superspeedway on June 24 and Mid-Ohio Sports Car Course (Lexington, Ohio) on July 9.

Tickets are on sale for WWTR's 2022 NASCAR Weekend, featuring the inaugural NASCAR Cup Series race, NASCAR Camping World Truck Series Toyota 200.
