

GCSD9 Announces Young Authors Winners

March 2 2022 7:46 AM

GRANITE CITY - Granite City Community Unit School District #9 has announced its Young Authors winners for the 2021-22 school year.

Each spring the Madison County Regional Office of Education recognizes Young Authors winners in grades K-8 from Madison County schools at a county-wide event. Students have the opportunity to share their books with each other, participate in reading /writing centric activities, and be entertained by a local author, storyteller, or performer.

The 31st annual Madison County Young Authors Conference will be held on Saturday, April 30, 2022, at Edwardsville High School.

Maryville Elementary School Principal Mark Lull is GCSD9's coordinator.
