MADISON COUNTY – Recently, Riverbend Head Start & Family Services (RHSFS) hired Precious Frazier as the new Staffing and Training Manager. She comes to the Agency with over 10 years of combined experience in Management and Human Resources.

After earning her Bachelor's in Organizational Leadership from Greenville University, Precious' career quickly transitioned from Retail to Human Resources. Within the first few months, she became interim Human Resources Manager. Since then, Precious has developed a specialty in recruitment and retention and employee relations, also earning her MBA from Greenville University.

In Precious' current role as Staffing and Training Manager, she works closely with the hiring Supervisors and the Human Resources Director, managing full cycle employee recruitment and overseeing onboarding and orientation, ensuring compliance, monitoring credentials, and developing and implementing training strategies.

Upon employment, Frazier expressed, "I am excited to join the team at Riverbend Head Start and Family Services and continue implementing change and impacting the lives of others." Precious believes that in order to have a better community, we must first start with ourselves.
