

DraftKings at Casino Queen Staff Volunteered to Clean Property and Surrounding Areas of the Community

May 13 2022 8:23 AM

EAST ST. LOUIS – Team members at DraftKings at Casino Queen, located at 200 South Front St. along the Mississippi River, came together to collect approximately 50 bags of trash and debris outside of the property.

As part of an initiative to keep Illinois clean and help protect the environment, 15 team members collected trash, debris and more over a one-mile stretch from City Hall to the front entrance of the casino.

“We are honored to come together as a team to show our support for the local community by participating in this clean-up initiative,” said Marc VanderWeele, general manager of DraftKings at Casino Queen. “We’re thrilled to work as a team to make a difference in East St. Louis and to help ensure locals and visitors can continue to enjoy our beautiful city.”
