OCTOBER 28, SPORTS ROUNDUP - FOOTBALL - IHSA PLAYOFFS

FIRST ROUND

CLASS 5A

Class 5A, Highland got three touchdown passes from Brent Wuebbels, who also scored three times, to defeat Dunlap 50-0.

Highland scored 13 points in the first quarter, exploded for 30 points in the second quarter and seven in the third period for its 50 points.

The Bulldogs improve to 9-1 overall on the season, while Dunlap closes at 5-5.

CLASS 7A

COLLINSVILLE 14,

BRADLEY BOURBONNAIS 12: Jerry Richardson and Ethan Bagwell, returning from injury, scored touchdowns in the first quarter and the defense made them stand up as Collinsville won its first-ever playoff game Friday night at Kahok Stadium.

Richardson scored on the opening possession with a seven-yard touchdown run, then Bagwell scored on the next possession on a three-yard run, then ran in a two-point conversion that made the score 14-12.

The Kahok defense played well all throughout and came up big late on fourth-quarter interceptions by Kolby Anderson and Darren Pennell that stopped Boilermaker drives, then came up big again with 18.2 seconds after a BBCHS touchdown cut the lead to 14-12, forcing an incomplection of a two-point conversion pass. then recovered the ensuing on-side kickoff to preserve the win.

BBCHS ends its season 5-5, while the Kahoks go to 9-1 and play Chicago Brother Rice Catholic, who defeated Algonquin Jacobs 27-0 in their playoff opener, in the second round.

The date, time, and site will be announced Monday afternoon at the IHSA office.

Class 8A

Belleville East lost to South Elgin 28-20.

The Lancers quarterback Armon Vinson threw for three touchdown passes.

South Elgin remains undefeated at 10-0, while Belleville East closes the season 5-5.
