"On top of the already delicious flavored drinks, amazing food will be in the building," he said. "We will have enjoyable entertainment, pool tables, dart boards, live bands, and local comedians that will pop in from time to time.

"Most importantly they will have a safe fun place in the daytime for kids to come to get lunch and throw some darts or play pool."

The couple said some of the best items on the Slurped Daiquiri menu will be the Daiquiri's, Philly Cheesesteak rolls, wings, deep-fried turkey legs, and new to the menu deep-fried corn.

"We are very excited to be franchising Slurped Daiquiri," they added. "The location in the East Alton Plaza has also been very successful. We feel it will be a fun place for those in Granite City." He encouraged residents to make sure to follow the bar's business Facebook page for all of their upcoming events and updates.
