

The Goddard School in Edwardsville Now Enrolling for its Popular Summer Program: Amazing Animals

February 22 2011 8:14 AM

Edwardsville, IL , Feb. 21, 2011 – The Goddard School in Edwardsville is now enrolling for its popular summer program open to children ages 6 months to 8 years. The summer program, with its theme Amazing Animals, will run from June 6 to Aug. 12, 2011.

Part of Goddard Systems, Inc., The Goddard School in Edwardsville follows a learn-through-play philosophy, which celebrates the individual potential of each child. The summer program was created to prepare children for school readiness while creating joyful, lasting summer memories offered at tradition summer camps. Activities include water play, themed activities, outdoor exploration, physical fitness and more.

“Our summer program is very popular with our children and parents as we try to make it as fun as it is beneficial to the child’s development. We have an amazing theme selected for our 2011 Summer Camp where we will explore the many Amazing Animals and learn about them each day in our curriculum and special on-site visitors,” said Barbara Burrows, owner.

Some weekly theme examples include Jungle Jive, Arctic Adventures, Out in the Outback, Forest Friends, Zany Zoo and much more!

Those interested in attending the 2011 Summer Camp program – Amazing Animals - should contact The Goddard School in Edwardsville at (618) 692-9464. Space is limited.
