ST. LOUIS – Major League Soccer (MLS) announced the full-season schedule for all of its 29 clubs Tuesday afternoon. Each team plays a 34-game regular season that runs from late February to October.

The debuting St. Louis City SC will play 17 home games and 17 away and play in the Western Conference.

They will open their season on the road against Austin FC on Feb. 25 with a 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

Their home opener will be against Charlotte FC the following week on March 4 at the brand-new CityPark at 7:30 p.m.

The team will naturally have rivalries with Sporting Kansas City and Chicago Fire FC.
