

13th Annual Quilt Exhibit to be held at Villa Rose

February 24 2011 12:03 PM

On Saturday, March 12, Villa Rose will host its 13th Annual Quilt Exhibit from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at 401 S. Moreland Rd., Bethalto. Villa Rose partners with Patchwork Plus to bring a display of beautiful quilts and interesting demonstrations to the public. Patchwork Plus will have quilting supplies for sale. A bed-turning demonstration is back by popular demand. During the bed-turning, each quilt is held up for display as the presenter tells the history of the quilt. Arene Burgess, a local historian, will present about Marie Webster, author of the first "quilt book" and founder of Practical Patchwork Company. As in the past, there will be a quilt raffle with the proceeds going to the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation. Admission is free and refreshments will be provided. To display a quilt or for more information, call 377-3239.
