

Daffodils go the extra mile

March 30 2015 10:51 AM

Judy Roth gives a vase of daffodils to Nikki Steinwar, a nursing student from Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, during the AMH Daffodils for Help & Hope Committee's annual sale last week. The sale raised $3,197.50 for the Alton Memorial Health Service Foundation's Extra Mile Fund, which provides services to AMH oncology patients.
