ALTON – Both Alton’s varsity and JV boy’s tennis teams were in action Tuesday afternoon. The varsity team beat Granite City 9-0 while JV beat CM 6-0. The varsity Redbirds improve to 7-8 on the season.

“These guys have been playing really well all year, so it was really nice to get a lot of varsity matches for everyone and it was sweet getting two wins,” Alton head coach Jesse Macias said. “Granite City and Civic Memorial have good players and coaches; we are happy with the results today.”

Against Granite City, Parker Mayhew, James McKeever, Luke Boyd, Nate Bartlett, and Victor Humphrey were double winners for the Redbirds. Alton also got a doubles win from Joey Ventimiglia and Julian Brady at No. 3 and David Reese and Ali Sakar at No. 4.
