

The 70th Season of the Greater Alton Concert Association (GACA) continues on April 10th with Dean Christopher and his "Ratpack" show.

March 24 2011 8:40 AM

With over 30 years experience as an actor, singer, comedian, and impressionist, Dean Christopher's stage, film, and television resume is extensive. After Frank Sinatra's death, Dean returned to his roots as a cabaret performer, hoping to keep Sinatra's style of music of alive. Dean's entertaining one-man show honors classic Las Vegas; it's style, music and performers back when the Rat Pack ruled. Dean pays tribute to the performers that influenced him with impressions of Tom Jones, Johnny Mathis, Elvis Presley, and of course, Frank, Sammy and Dino.

This and all GACA shows are on Sunday afternoons at 3pm. Please note that while Hatheway Hall is under construction, all concerts will be held in the Commons at the Science & Technology Building on the campus of Lewis & Clark Community College: 5800 Godfrey Road—Godfrey, IL 62035.
