ALTON – Local attorneys M. Caitlin Embrich and Brittany Elliott are partnering to provide legal services to families in counties of southwestern Illinois. E&E Law officially launches their new partnership and law firm with a ribbon cutting ceremony at their Belleville, Illinois office located at 120 W. Main St.

E&E Law's mission kicks off with a commitment to serve families through all of life's big and challenging moments. Through this new partnership, E&E Law attorneys wish to continue their dedication and quality of service assisting individuals with divorce, legal separation, parentage, custody, child support, relocation, adoption, orders of protection, real estate transactions, mediation, Guardian Ad Litem, probate, and estate planning (wills, trusts, powers of attorney, etc.). E&E Law practices in the southwestern Illinois counties of Madison, Jersey, St. Clair, Monroe, Clinton, Macoupin, and Bond.

M. Caitlin Embrich, founding partner, says, "Opening E&E Law has been a dream of mine since I started law school and now it is a dream come true. Brittany and I are so excited to be able to represent clients with the utmost care and integrity, and we hold our ethics in high regard. We truly operate as a team and love being able to put our heads together for the best possible outcomes for our clients. Every day, we strive to have open lines of communication with each other and our clients to ensure that all our clients' needs are met. We have offices in St. Clair and Madison Counties to be able to serve individuals in the location that is most convenient to them. In addition, being active members of the communities in which we live is very important to us as it allows us to better serve our clients. We love families! We love our community!"

Major life transitions can be extremely scary. The decision to proceed with a divorce or separation can cause stress, fear and anxiety. Losing a loved one is devastating and being faced with disposing of debts and assets can be time consuming and overwhelming. Embrich & Elliott Law realizes that these may be some of the most difficult times in a person's life. Embrich & Elliott Law was founded with the goal of helping families like yours through life's biggest moments. E&E Law helps navigate families through these challenging moments and advocates individuals to ensure their voice is heard.

In any legal matter, it is important that clients are educated about the process and that they fully understand the nature of any situation and available options before making any decision that may impact a family's future. Caitlin & Brittany provide clients with guidance and information necessary to help walk families through legal matters with less stress and fear. It is the goal of E&E Law to ensure that each client feels confident in their representation, and that they walk away feeling like their opinions have been heard and that they are the ones in charge of their own lives and futures.
