GRANITE CITY - Granite City had a long list of high school students who auditioned and were selected for the Eastern Illinois University Honor Band Festival.

A total of 25 Granite City students were picked of the 103 students across the state to participate.

The students rehearsed and attended masterclasses and faculty recitals before performing a concert conducted by Dr. Alicia Neal and Professor David Boggs.

The Granite City administration said the students represented Granite City well and "we are proud of their hard work and accomplishments."
