KENT, Ohio - Caleb Tyus battled back from an opening-round Mid-American Conference Championships loss and has earned a position at the 2024 NCAA Division I Championships.

Tyus placed third Saturday at 149 pounds by defeating Northern Illinois' Jaivon Jones 3-2 in a tiebreaker. Tyus also bested George Mason's Kaden Cassidy 9-6 in the consolation semifinals, avenging his first-round loss from Friday. The third-place finish gives Tyus an automatic bid to the NCAA Championships, which will be held March 21-23 in Kansas City, Missouri.

"He did a really great job of coming through the back side of the bracket," said SIUE Head Coach Jeremy Spates. "He wrestled well to come back and secure his spot."

SIUE placed eighth as a team with 69 points, the best team finish for the Cougars since taking seventh in 2019.

Six SIUE wrestlers finished in the top eight. The Cougars' top finishers were Davian Guanajuato (125/5th), Marcel Lopez (133/3rd), Eric Almarinez (141/4th), Dominic Lopez (174/7th) and Deron Pulliam (184/5th).

"A couple of guys will have a chance at a wild card for NCAAs," said Spates. "All six of the guys did a great job today. It seemed like we got stronger as the tournament went on."
