*ALTON, IL – July 25, 2011*– *Two of the area’s popular music groups play the “LIVE at Jacoby: last saturday nights” concert at the Jacoby Arts Center on July 30th. The Down Home String Band performs from 7 – 8 p.m. in their second appearance at Jacoby’s “last saturday nights” program. The group, in the tradition of family string bands, consists of bass, fiddle, mandolin, and guitars with dulcimers and a banjomer which make the music unique. Band members are Rich and Lana Harrison, Gorden Dingeldein, Mike Hammerbacher, and Jerry and Karen McCann. The group originally played with the Alton Area Dulcimer Players and formed the Down Home String Band in 2010. Members have played annually at the “Pickin’ Porch” in Townsend, Tennessee, and at “Chataugua on the Wabash” in New Harmony, Indiana. *
