THE RIVER JAM 2014 LINEUP

Elvin Bishop got his start playing the blues on Chicago's Southside – learning from masters like Muddy Waters and Buddy Guy. After starting his career with the legendary Butterfield Blues Band, Bishop gained fame as a bandleader with hits like “Fooled Around and Fell In Love.” Touring with a powerhouse band in support of a brand new recording, Elvin Bishop will deliver great blues and rock to headline River Jam 2014! (www.elvinbishopmusic.com.)

Wishbone Ash, one of the most influential guitar bands in the history of rock, returns to the St. Louis area to perform its best-selling album, “Live Dates,” in its entirety – as well as tracks from the band's new recording. “Blue Horizon.” (www.wishboneash.com.)

Savoy Brown – led by legendary guitarist Kim Simmonds, is still going strong after more than four decades of touring the world and recording more than 30 albums. Savoy Brown's high-energy blues has made them a longtime St. Louis favorite. (www.savoybrown.com.)

Point Blank started rocking America in 1974 – and the band is still going strong. Best known for the hit single, “Nicole,” Point Blank 's powerhouse, Texas-style southern rock is guaranteed to energize River Jam! (www.pointblanksouthernrock.com.)
