We will also be collecting donations for
Shoeman Water Project

Here's how it works:

1. Clean out your closet of any kind of shoes, new or used.
2. Tie or rubber band pairs together
3. Drop them in at shoe collection location at the shoe drive area at the Catholic Children's Home 1st Annual Family Bazaar.

When you donate your new and used shoes, Shoeman Water Project's serves two, affordable shoes for those who need them and clean drinking water for those who thirst.

COOKIE WAR!

Help us continue to make Catholic Children's Home a safe haven for abused & neglected children

As part of the Catholic Children's Home's 1st Annual Community Family Bazaar, We are having a Cookie War! Think you make the best cookies in the Alton area? Well, here is your chance to prove it! We are inviting everyone to participate in a fun & friendly COOKIE WAR! Pick your favorite cookie recipe, whip up a big batch of your best cookies, bring them to the 1st Annual Community Family Bazaar on the front lawn of the Catholic Children's Home, 1400 State Street, Alton, and compete with others in the area for a chance to say, "I Won the Cookie War!" This is a great way for the community to come together for some fun and to help the Catholic Children's Home continue our mission to aid, protect, and care for the needs, education, and welfare of dependent, neglected, abused, or otherwise hurting children and families, without regard to poverty, riches, race, religion, and national origin.

CATHOLIC CHILDREN'S HOME

Turn in Registration Form before 5/18/2012

Bring one dozen cookies to the Cookie Wars Booth at the 1st Annual Family Bazaar on June 2, 2012 by 10:30 am for judging. The winner will be announced at noon.

The winner of the Cookie War will be asked to bake another dozen cookies to be auctioned off at the Catholic Children's Home Art Auction on Dec. 8th, 2012.

Send in your registration form before Friday, 5/25/2012.

All cookies must be homemade (no store-bought, mixes or refrigerated cookie dough, please)

Cookies should be made prior to the contest and require no refrigeration.

Contestants are allowed only one type of cookie per entry.

Cookies will be judged by guest judges on the following criteria:

Taste

Texture

Presentation

Originality

Please designate 12 cookies for the judges.

The winner of the Cookie War will be asked to bake another dozen cookies to be auctioned off at the Catholic Children's Home Art Auction on Dec. 8, 2012.

Prizes will be awarded

Furniture Re-Purposing Contest

Help us continue to make Catholic Children's Home a safe haven for abused & neglected children

As part of the Catholic Children's Home's 1st Annual Community Family Bazaar, We are having a Furniture Re-Purposing Contest. The object of this contest is to take a old, out-dated or non-functional piece of furniture and create something original, functional, creative and fun! This provides a great opportunity for individuals and families in our communities to express their artistic side and support the Catholic Children's Home in continuing our mission to aid, protect, and care for the needs, education, and welfare of dependent, neglected, abused, or otherwise hurting children and families, without regard to poverty, riches, race, religion, and national origin.
