

Sponsored by The Illinois Association of Regional Superintendents, Robert A. Daiber Ed.D, President & ISBE
 Funded through a Federal Safe and Drug-Free Schools and Community Program Grant

May 15, 2012

Morris University Center
 Meridian Ballroom
 Southern Illinois University

6:00pm - 7:00pm Reception &
 Book Signing
 7:00pm - Presentation

Cost: FREE
 Pre-Registration Required

Register on-line at www.roe41.org

CREATING A CULTURE OF DIGNITY IN SCHOOLS

Rosalind Wiseman gives advice to young people who are going through difficult social problems, teaches teachers how they don't have to be the counselor, but they do have to be able to address bullying and abuse of power in classrooms. She let's them know if they don't, they're betraying the trust that adults have with kids, and they're also not creating an atmosphere where kids can learn.

