

"Seeds of Love"

Music to Reawaken the Love Within

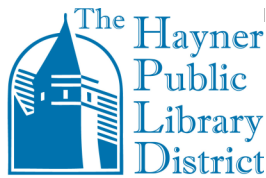

Presented by
The Hayner Public Library District and
Lewis and Clark Community College
Music Department

Renowned harpist, Amy (Conrady) Camie is joined by the exquisite vocals of Jessica Goodenough-Heuser in this musical journey that celebrates the joy and love of life. Experience Amy's inspired original music and Jessica's angelic voice in this magical afternoon that will touch your heart, illuminate your dreams and reawaken the love within.

Featuring....

Amy Camie, Harpist

Amy (Conrady) Camie, a Godfrey native and professional harpist for over 35 years, is an award winning performer, public speaker, recording artist, author and Founder of the Scientific Arts Foundation. Her healing solo harp music has been used in nine different research studies indicating how they increase neurological functioning, support the immune system and reduce pain, distress and anxiety levels. Her inspired music relaxes the body, calms the mind, and gently touches the soul. Amy's CDs are used throughout the country in hospitals, cancer centers and hospices as well as for general relaxation and stress reduction. www.amycamie.com

Jessica Goodenough-Heuser, Soprano

Jessica Goodenough-Heuser earned her Bachelor in vocal performance from Washington University where she studied with Christine Armistead. As a specialist in Baroque and Early Music, she performs around the US and internationally. A native of St. Louis, Jessica sings regularly with the Kingsbury Ensemble and as the section leader and soloist at Christ Church Cathedral. Her natural tone and diverse palate allow her to move easily between genres.

www.jessicagoodenoughheuser.com

Sunday, March 24, 2013

2 p.m.

Lewis and Clark Community College
Benjamin Godfrey Memorial Chapel

Admission Free

For Reservations call 1-800-613-3163