

Carol Admire

Alton | Saturday, May 23 2015

Carol Admire, 65, of Alton, IL was transported in the light on Saturday May 23, 2015 doing what she loved-riding her bike. This vibrant soul was born to Raymond and Juanita Admire on September 4, 1949, who she is now reunited with in heaven. She joins also her sister, Shirley Admire, who preceded her in death.

Carol is missed and loved by her daughter Kelli (Schenk) Thompson and her husband Charles, Jodie Schenk (Krueger) and her partner Eric Brand, her grandchildren Jeremy Gratton, Meredith Perrin & her fiancé Dustin Hoene, Emily Thompson, Jacob Krueger and Joel Krueger; her brother and sister-in-law, Larry and Barb Admire, and her nieces and nephews: Todd Admire and his wife Mary Pat, Jud Admire, Staci Admire and her partner Adele Langlois, Scott Admire and his partner Wendy Wickenhauser and Shannon Admire.

Carol retired from Edward Jones in 2014. She was passionate about astrology and an avid and talented writer. Everyone she met became a friend; she brought light to their lives with her infectious laugh, positivity and love. She will be dearly missed.

Donations may be made to the Jacoby Arts Center in Alton IL or the Arthritis Foundation.

The family also asks that supporters go to <http://www.ipetitions.com/petition/guardrail-in-memory-of-carol-admire> and sign a petition to have a guardrail put on the river side of the bike trail on the Great River Road.

Friends and family please join us Friday, May 29 at Gent Funeral Home, 2409 State Street, Alton, IL. Visitation 4-7pm with a Memorial Service at 7pm. Additional information and online guest book may be found at www.gentfuneralhome.com