

Mary Fessler

Dow | Sunday, July 16 2017

Mary Margaret (Stafford) Fessler AGE: 102

DIED: She went to be with Jesus, her savior, at 7:45 a.m. on July 16, 2017 at the home of her daughter, Margaret in Dorsey, IL.

BORN: March 16, 1915 in Rosedale Township

PARENTS: Frederick & Mary (Wieland) Stafford

MARRIED: James H. Fessler (He Died: July 22, 1994)

DATE & PLACE: October 24, 1934 in St. Charles, Mo.

OCCUPATION: She was a loving mother and grandmother. She lived in the time of no modern conveniences and raised a large family through many hard times and hard work, alongside her husband on the farm.

MEMEBRSHIPS: Jersey County Farm Bureau and Grafton Full Gospel Church

VISITATION: 9-11a.m. Thursday July 20, 2017

At Grafton Full Gospel Church

15065 Elm St. (4 miles East of Grafton on IL Route 3) Grafton, IL 62037

FUNERAL: 11:00 a.m. Thursday July 20, 2017

At Grafton Full Gospel Church

MINISTER: Rev. Samuel William CEMETERY: Valhalla Memorial Park in Godfrey

MEMORIALS: In Lieu of Flowers, memorials may be made to Full Gospel Church or the charity of one's choice.

SURVIVORS

CHILDREN: June & Hugh Moore of Jerseyville, Margaret Bertels of Dorsey, Ruth & Edward Jacoby of Brighton, Norma & Larry Cooksey of Delavan, Evie Stufflebeam of Summerville, SC

DAUGHTER-IN-LAW: Juanita Fessler of Jerseyville

GRANDCHILDREN: 16 GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN: 33

GREAT-GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN: 13

PRECEDED IN DEATH BY: Parents, Husband, stillborn daughter: Claudia, son: James D. Fessler, granddaughter: Kathy (Fessler) Powers, sons-in-law: Wilmar Bertels and Bruce Stufflebeam, siblings: Robert Stafford, Adele Karnes, Dorothy Baker, Frances Stafford

ALEXANDER & GUBSER FUNERAL HOME

IN CHARGE OF ARRANGEMENTS