She was very kind, gentle, soft spoken, caring, compassionate, and loved the Lord with all her heart. Studying the bible and reading daily meditations and e-mailing them to everyone she knew was one of her favorite past times. A photographer and making photo albums with the pictures she had taken, was a hobby of hers. Going to musicals and plays gave her so much pleasure especially if she went to the Fox or Muny. Flowers in beautiful gardens were very special and she loved roses, especially pink roses. Everyone she met she greeted with her beautiful blue eyes and lovely smile.
