

Thomas Lutes

Milan, Tenn. | Friday, September 18 2020

Thomas D'Wight 'Tom' Lutes, 44, passed away on September 18, 2020, at Jackson-Madison County General Hospital in Jackson, TN.

He was born on Jan. 11, 1976, in Alton, IL to Gerald Lutes and Janet Lutes Ray.

A 1993 graduate of Alpha Chapel Christian Academy, Tom was a big fan of the St. Louis Blues and Notre Dame athletics.

Survivors include his father, Gerald (Dorothy) Lutes; his mother, Janet Ray of East Alton; grandmother, Effie Dugan of Wood River; wife, Jennifer Lutes; mother in law, Betty Delancey; brother in law, Wyatt Durham; sister, Peggy Lutes; special niece and nephews, Madison Durham, Landen Durham and Colton Durham; and his two Chihuahuas, Pickles and Louie.

He was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Cecil Ray and Harold Dugan.

Due to current COVID-19 restrictions, memorial services will be private at Paynic Home for Funerals.

Memorials may be made to the National Kidney Foundation.

An online guestbook is available at www.paynicfh.com

